

The GRE®
revised
General Test

Coming in August 2011!

The GRE® General Test
is changing

Find out what you need to know — and why it's good news for you!

- New question types that better reflect the skills you need to succeed in graduate or business school
- A new test-taker friendly design that lets you edit or change your answers, skip questions and more, all within a section
- Save 50% if you test in August or September 2011

The GRE® revised General Test — what's changing and why it's good news for you.

A graduate or business degree can give you a big career advantage. An important step toward achieving your goals is to take the GRE® General Test. It's the one test that is accepted by thousands of graduate programs worldwide, including a rapidly growing number of MBA and other business school programs.

Now we're making that step even more meaningful for you. Starting August 1, 2011, the GRE® revised General Test will replace the current GRE General Test, giving you an even better test experience — and new types of questions that help show your readiness for graduate-level work.

Here's what you can expect with the GRE revised General Test:

- More real-life scenarios to reflect the kind of thinking you will do in today's demanding graduate and business school programs
- Less reliance on vocabulary out of context, more emphasis on reading — and no antonyms or analogies
- Many new design features, including the ability to edit or change your answers, skip questions and more, all within a section, allowing you to use more of your own personal test-taking strategies
- New question types, such as entering a number or providing more than one response when asked, so you can better demonstrate what you know
- The introduction of an on-screen calculator for the Quantitative Reasoning section*

*For those taking the paper-based GRE revised General Test, calculators will be provided at the test center for use during the test.

Save 50% when you test in August or September 2011!

You won't want to miss out on this valuable opportunity to save 50% on the GRE revised General Test when you take the test between August 1 and September 30, 2011. This exclusive offer is only for test takers who are among the first to take the GRE revised General Test. You'll have the same test experience and advantages as anyone who takes the GRE revised General Test after the special offer period is over — the only difference is the savings!

To take advantage of this limited-time 50% savings, we recommend that you register as soon as possible once registration opens on March 15, 2011, since seats will fill up quickly. Please note that when you test during this special discount period of August 1 – September 30, 2011, your GRE scores will be sent by mid-November 2011. That means if you need your scores before then, don't wait — make sure you take the current test before August 1, 2011.

50% discount offer applies to the GRE® revised General Test administration fee only for tests taken from August 1, 2011 – September 30, 2011. Examinees who take the test during this testing period will be sent their scores by mid-November 2011. Fee and discount does not include all applicable fees, Value Added or similar taxes. Cannot be applied to previous registrations or combined with any other offers. Examinees who register within the promotional period may reschedule during such promotional period, subject to applicable fees; however, any and all other cancellations and rescheduled exams are non-refundable. Not valid for cash or cash equivalent. There are no guarantees of seat availability, so examinees must register to reserve a seat. All other GRE terms and conditions are in effect. ETS may modify or discontinue this offer at any time without notice.

Take the GRE test at the location of your choice.

There are about 700 test centers in more than 160 countries so you can find a location that is convenient for you. The computer-based test is available throughout the year in most regions of the world. And, in areas of the world where computer-based testing is not available, the GRE revised General Test will be administered in a paper-based format.

Important news for test takers in China (including Hong Kong), Korea and Taiwan

If you're taking the test in these areas starting in August 2011, with the introduction of the GRE revised General Test, the split-test administration will be eliminated and will be replaced with more frequent computer-based testing. There will now be one to two fixed administrations per month, with the first administration on August 6, 2011. You will be able to take the Verbal Reasoning, Quantitative Reasoning and Analytical Writing sections on computer all on the same day and in the same sitting. Another benefit is that computer-based testing will allow faster score reporting for you, once score reporting returns to the regular 10 – 15 day turnaround schedule in December 2011. For the period October – November 2011, please check the GRE® website for special score reporting timelines.

Important news about the paper-based GRE revised General Test

For those taking the paper-based GRE revised General Test, the test design and question types will be modified to be appropriate for a paper-based, linear test. The first paper-based administration of the GRE revised General Test will be October 22, 2011. Score reports will continue to be reported on the normal 6-week reporting basis for paper-based tests.

If you need your scores before November 2011, you must take the current GRE General Test before August 1, 2011.

Last Dates to Take the Current Split Test in China (including Hong Kong), Korea and Taiwan

Computer-based Analytical Writing Section — September 19, 2010 – May 7, 2011
Paper-based Verbal & Quantitative Sections — June 11, 2011*

Last Dates to Take the Current Paper-based Test

October 23, 2010; November 20, 2010; February 12, 2011

Seats will fill up quickly, so register soon to get the seat and location of your choice. Not all test dates are available in all locations, so check the GRE website for more information.

Register now for the current test at www.ets.org/gre/registertoday.

*Individuals taking the Analytical Writing Section between September 19, 2010, and May 7, 2011, will be registered for the paper-based test administration on June 11, 2011.

How you can get ready now.

The GRE revised General Test is coming on August 1, 2011, and there are a few ways you can start getting ready for it right now:

1. Check the score submission deadlines of the institutions to which you are applying:

- a. If you take the GRE revised General Test during our special offer period of August – September 2011, you can save 50%. Your scores will be sent by mid-November.
- b. If you take the test in October – November 2011, check the detailed score reporting schedule on the GRE website to see what day your scores will be sent.
- c. Starting in December 2011, GRE score reporting returns to the regular reporting period of 10 – 15 days after test date.*
- d. If a school needs your scores before November 2011, you must take the current test before August 2011 to make sure you have your scores in time.

2. Register early for whichever test you plan to take to get the date and location of your choice.

3. Download our FREE test prep materials to start practicing. Free test prep materials are available on the GRE website for the revised and current tests.

4. Learn more about the GRE revised General Test — what's changing and why it's good news for you — at www.ets.org/gre/excitingchanges/learn.

5. Sign up now to get all the details you need to know about the GRE revised General Test with special test-taker news and information. Don't miss out. Sign up today! www.ets.org/gre/testtakernews/signup

*6 weeks for paper-based testing

Visit www.ets.org/gre/excitingchanges/learn for all the information you need.

Get ready for the GRE revised General Test!

Here are important dates you need to know:

MONTH	MILESTONE
2010
As of JULY	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Free test prep for the GRE revised General Test is available at www.ets.org/gre/revised/prepare</li></ul>
2011
MARCH	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>March 15: Registration opens for the GRE revised General Test (If you need your scores before November 2011, register now for the current test at www.ets.org/gre/registertoday)</li></ul>
AUGUST – SEPTEMBER	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>August 1: First day of testing for the GRE revised General Test</li><li>August 1 – September 30: Save 50% on your test fee. If you test during this period, your scores will be sent by mid-November</li></ul>
OCTOBER – NOVEMBER	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>If you test between October and November, you should check the detailed score reporting schedule at www.ets.org/gre/revised/reporting to see what day your scores will be sent</li></ul>
DECEMBER	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Normal score reporting resumes. Your score report will be sent 10 – 15 days after your test date.*</li></ul>

*6 weeks for paper-based testing.

---

Don't miss important news for test takers!

Make sure you get all the details you need to know about the GRE revised General Test coming on August 1, 2011. Sign up now for test-taker news and information at www.ets.org/gre/testtakernews/signup.

The GRE® revised General Test is coming in August 2011!

To find out why that's good news for you,
visit www.ets.org/gre/excitingchanges/learn.

Sign up now to get all the details you need to know about the GRE® revised General Test with special test-taker news and information at www.ets.org/gre/testtakernews/signup.

Copyright © 2010 by Educational Testing Service. All rights reserved. ETS, the ETS logo, LISTENING. LEARNING. LEADING, and GRE are registered trademarks of Educational Testing Service (ETS) in the United States and other countries. 14951

Listening. Learning. Leading.®

www.ets.org